

Greater Augusta Association
Of Realtors
President's Scholarship Program
2012

The President's College Scholarship has been established by the Greater Augusta Association of Realtors (GAAR) to recognize eight outstanding high school seniors from the Columbia, Richmond, Burke, Lincoln, and McDuffie County School Systems. The Scholarships, in the amount of $1,000 each, will be awarded to deserving and qualified seniors from the above school systems.

Guidelines

DESCRIPTION OF SCHOLARSHIP

The Scholarship will be provided to deserving students of the public high schools within the greater Augusta area selected as provided below.

ADMINISTRATORS

The President's Scholarship Program shall be administered by the GAAR.

SELECTION COMMITTEE

A selection committee will govern the criteria for selection, publish information about the scholarship and select the students to be awarded the scholarships. The Selection Committee will consist of the current President, Vice President, and three past Presidents of the GAAR selected by the GAAR Board of Directors. The three past Presidents shall serve one year terms beginning on the first day of January.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTION

The Selection Committee shall include the following criteria in determining the recipients of the scholarships:

- 1. That the essay of the applicant will be reviewed for clarity, sincerity and content.
2. That the applicant has satisfactory academic achievement. This is to be determined by reviewing transcripts and grade point average of the applicant.
3. That the references reviewed and evaluated indicate scholarship, diligence and social skill.
4. That the applicant is accepted for enrollment in an accredited college or university.

Selection Committee:

The Selection Committee will meet during the spring of the year. All applicants will be notified of the results within ten (10) school days of the committee meeting.

REQUIREMENTS

The senior guidance counselor should be provided a complete packet of the following forms by March 18, 2011 and mailed to the Greater Augusta Association of REALTORS with postmark no later than March 23, 2012, 1214 Roy Road, Augusta, GA 30909

1. Pages 1 and 2 - General Application Form. Print or type all data being careful to complete each section.
2. Page 3 - College Acceptance Data Form. This form verifies acceptance. The form should be completed and signed by the senior guidance counselor. Counselors may obtain this information via phone conversation with college admissions office.
3. Page 4 - Two (2) Completed Reference Questionnaires (one from an educator and one from a person not in education who has observed the student in activities such as scouts, 4-H, church, work, etc.) These completed references should be submitted to the senior guidance counselor in sealed envelopes and should not be seen by the applicant.

All other forms must be returned as a packet to the Guidance Counselor.

4. A copy of high school transcript with GPA and SAT or ACT score highlighted. GPA is to be calculated through the first semester of current school year.
5. A one page, double-spaced, typed essay outlining the student's career and educational goals. The applicant should indicate why he/she should be awarded a scholarship. The applicant's name and social security number should be located in the top right corner of the essay.

The Selection Committee will not consider incomplete, late or incorrectly submitted applications. It is the student's responsibility to determine whether the application is complete.
